

ECVC Wins the 2009 Performance Excellence in Government Contracts Award

Press Release, January 20, 2010: Eastern Carolina Vocational Center, ECVC, recently received notification of being the 2009 winner of the Performance Excellence in Government Contracts Award. This award is presented by NISH and the AbilityOne Program to recognize excellence in AbilityOne contract performance and serve as an example to other nonprofit agencies. ECVC currently has ten AbilityOne contracts.

This award recognizes ECVC, Pitt County's 2008 Industry of the Year, as a world leader and a top performer in its field of government contract performance, quality products, management systems and customer service.

NISH is a national nonprofit agency whose mission is to create employment opportunities for people with severe disabilities by securing Federal contracts through the AbilityOne Program for its network of community-based, nonprofit agencies. The organization maintains operational and regulatory oversight of these contracts for over 1000 Community Rehabilitation Programs similar to ECVC.

ECVC is honored to have been selected for its fourth NISH award. President, Daneel le Roux, will travel in May to the NISH Annual Conference in Anaheim, California for the awards presentation.

For additional information, contact ECVC Marketing Director, Susan Daughtry, at 252-317-3134 or sdaughtry@ecvcinc.com